

Supplementary Figure S2: Schematic representation of flow cytometer gating followed for FcεR1α positive immune cells in the pancreatic tumor. Human pancreatic tumor samples were acquired through RAPID autopsy program and processed for single cell suspension. Subsequently, cells were stained for cell surface markers using fluorescent labeled antibodies and assessed through flow cytometer.