

CDC core global programs leveraged for COVID-19 response

In early 2020, CDC country offices leveraged available assets toward the COVID-19 response.

1,800+ CDC STAFF serving across 60+ countries.

40 YEARS of Field Epidemiology Training Programs

Many FETP graduates support and coordinate national country COVID-19 responses.

OVER 80

countries with CDC supported FETP frontline, intermediate, or advanced programs

20,500 TRAINED

disease detectives

18 YEARS of U.S. President's Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief*

20,000

health facilities

73%

of CDC's overseas staff

2,000

laboratories

23 YEARS of STOP Program (STOP)

23 YEARS

supporting polio eradication and building immunization capacity worldwide

270

STOP Program consultants worked on COVID-19 in 47 countries

119,000

country public health workers trained by STOP consultants on COVID-19 response activities

*CDC's longstanding investments through PEPFAR – in laboratory science, in surveillance and health information systems, in building healthcare workforce and community capacity – better prepared us to respond to COVID-19 in the countries where we work.

Global Influenza Surveillance and Research Platforms

23

special COVID-19 projects in 21 COUNTRIES, including COVID-19 vaccine effectiveness evaluations.

MORE THAN 1,900

Influenza SARS-CoV-2 Multiplex Assay kits to 151 LABORATORIES in 134 COUNTRIES, corresponding to 960,000+ TESTS.

35 STAFF

in 12 COUNTRIES support respiratory disease surveillance and programs