

Overview of Select Fiscal Year 2021 CDC COVID-19 Funding Opportunities (current as of August 2021)

This table outlines select CDC funding resources provided to state, tribal, local, and territorial governments and other organizations to support their COVID-19 response activities. It does not represent all CDC resources but outlines the funding streams where recipients have requested further clarification and where there are perceived similarities in the intended purpose and allowable activities. As always, recipients should contact their project officers for further guidance and information.
