

Appendix

SARS OUTPATIENT FOLLOW-UP PROTOCOL

- Nursing assessment
- Temperature: oral
- BP, RR, P
- O<sub>2</sub> saturation

Laboratory work:

- CBC, urea, creatinine, electrolytes, glucose, LDH, AST, ALP, bilirubin, albumin, CK, C Reactive Protein, ESR, Ca, PO<sub>4</sub>, Mg
- One red-top tube for SARS serology, Mycoplasma, Legionella, Chlamydia
- F/u SARS diagnostic kit:
  - NP swab in viral transport medium (PCR)
  - Nasal swab in viral transport medium (PCR)
  - Throat swab in viral transport medium (PCR)
  - Rectal swab in viral transport medium OR stool specimen in sterile container (PCR)
  - Urine specimen in sterile container (PCR)

- CXR: portable PA
- MD assessment
- Social work
- Psychology

PRN:

- Crisis team
- Psychiatry
- Public health

Appendix. Standardized admission orders for patients with severe acute respiratory syndrome. A hospitalist is a general internist who works in the hospital covering the ward and intensive care unit; CBC, complete blood count; AST, aspartate transaminases; ALT, alanine transaminases; LDH, lactate dehydrogenase; HBsAg, hepatitis B surface antigen; prn, pro re nata, i.e., when necessary; q4h, every 4 hours.