

Table 1. MENDS Project Team and Partner Sites

Organization	Project Team Role
National Association of Chronic Disease Directors (NACDD)	Direct CDC grantee that provides project oversight, establishes strategic direction, and serves as the Coordinating Center for MENDS
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC)	Both funder and subject matter expert in surveillance, small area estimation, electronic case definitions, and data modernization
Commonwealth Informatics (CI)	Information technology vendor to support the ESP, PopMedNet™, and RiskScape software platforms for MENDS and the system’s overall implementation and maintenance, including data quality assurance and algorithm development
Harvard Medical School, Department of Population Medicine (DPM)	Original developers of ESP platform and MDPHnet and leaders of the MDPHnet Coordinating Center that support algorithm development and validation efforts
Public Health Informatics Institute (PHII), a program of the Task Force for Global Health	An organization with expertise in building governance and information partnerships across MENDS
University of Massachusetts Lowell	Technical lead for developing weighting and modeling methods to generate prevalence estimates for varying geographic levels and subpopulations
Partner Site Data Contributor*	Data User
AllianceChicago	Chicago Department of Public Health Cook County Department of Public Health
Louisiana Public Health Institute/ REACHnet	Louisiana Office of Public Health New Orleans Health Department Texas Department of State Health Services
OneHealthPort	Washington State Department of Health
Trustees of Indiana University and Regenstrief Institute	Indiana Department of Health Marion County Public Health Department
University of Colorado Anschutz Medical Campus and Health Data Compass	University of Colorado Anschutz Medical Campus
* Data contributors are stewards of data from their associated healthcare organization partners.	