The article to which this erratum refers was published in Am. J. Ind. Med. 56:670–681, 2013 (10.1002/ajim.22082). There were two typographical errors listed in the Results section of the Abstract of this article. The Construction of Buildings prevalence ratio (PR) and confidence interval (CI) should be: (PR = 1.59, CI = 1.51–1.68). The PR and CI for Real Estate and Rental and Leasing should be: (PR = 1.61, CI = 1.51–1.71). The numbers were reported accurately in the Results section.

The authors regret these errors.
