

A top-down view of a Thanksgiving table. In the center is a large, dark blue ceramic plate with a scalloped rim. To its left, a silver fork and knife are wrapped in a grey paper napkin with a piece of twine. Above the plate is a small white plate with a green salad and a tomato slice. To the right is a roasted turkey leg on a silver platter. Below the blue plate is a small ear of yellow corn. In the bottom right corner, there is a whole orange pumpkin and a single autumn leaf. The entire scene is set on a light-colored wooden table.
