Prohibiting smoking in public housing nationally would save lives AND:

$153 million annually

$94 million in secondhand smoke-related health care

$43 million in renovation expenses

$16 million in smoking-related

