

DIVISION OF GLOBAL HEALTH PROTECTION 2016 ACCOMPLISHMENTS BY THE NUMBERS

Detecting and Identifying Diseases

35+

Dangerous Pathogens

Tracked in 132 countries

30-40

Potential Outbreaks

Monitored daily by the Global Disease Detection
Operations Center

400

Potential Outbreaks

Investigated by Field
Epidemiology Training
Program (FETP) residents

Advancing Public Health Capabilities

20

CDC-Supported Countries

Developed or strengthened their National Public Health Institutes

28

Countries

Completed Joint
External Evaluations

1200+

Disease Detectives

Graduated from 24 new
FETP- Frontline programs

Responding to Global Emergencies

40

CDC Experts

Deployed to Angola
in response to yellow fever

350

Global Rapid Response Team Members

Ready to deploy anywhere within 24-48 hours

3000

FETP Trainees and Graduates

Mobilized to respond to Zika in Central America and Caribbean

8000

Person-days

Supported responses
to cholera, yellow
fever, Ebola, measles,
polio and Zika