Articles screened at the full text level
Systematic Review of Community-based latent tuberculosis infection (LTBI) screening to reach foreign-born individuals in the United States: UCSF CAPE Project

Contents
Included (N=15).............................................................................................................................................. 1
Excluded: Facility/institution based (N=13).................................................................................................. 3
Excluded: Lacked outcome of interest (N=6).............................................................................................. 4
Excluded: Conducted outside of the US (N=2)............................................................................................ 4
Excluded: Outbreak investigation (N=2)...................................................................................................... 5
Excluded: Didn't target foreign born (N=2).............................................................................................. 5
Excluded: Sample largely children (N=1)................................................................................................... 5
Excluded: No eligible study included (reviews and reports) (N=1) ............................................................... 5
Excluded: Duplicate data (N=1).................................................................................................................. 6

Included (N=15)

Excluded: Facility/institution based (N=13)

Oh PK. The demography of tuberculosis in California in a time of transition: In search of empirical evidence to guide public health agencies' efforts to target tuberculosis

Excluded: Lacked outcome of interest (N=6)

Excluded: Conducted outside of the US (N=2)

Excluded: Outbreak investigation (N=2)
CDC, TB Elimination Division. TB Notes. 2010(3).

Excluded: Didn’t target foreign born (N=2)

Excluded: Sample largely children (N=1)

Excluded: No eligible study included (reviews and reports) (N=1)
Excluded: Duplicate data (N=1)