

PUBLIC HEALTH REPORTS

Published since 1878

Contents

	Page
Public Health Reports—From yellow fever to international health.....	1
The new Public Health Reports. Leonard A. Scheele	2
The Board of Editors—Public Health Reports.....	3
The CMP and the public's health. W. E. Gilbertson	8
Susceptibility of Anopheles quadrimaculatus to Korean vivax malaria. Martin D. Young and Robert W. Burgess	14
Venereal disease control program in transition. Theodore J. Bauer	17
National morbidity reporting—Revised system. C. C. Dauer	21
Salaries of State health department personnel—From 1947 to 1951. Sam A. Kimble	26
Impact on the Department of Public Health of the San Diego mass chest X-ray survey.....	31
Fluoridation of municipal waters, American Dental Association symposium. Frederick S. McKay, A. P. Black, Milton E. Nicholson, F. A. Bull	36
Leadership and the conditions of organizational effectiveness. Douglas McGregor	42
Observations on the epidemiology of poliomyelitis. W. Thurber Fales and Matthew Taback	47
Trichophyton tonsurans ringworm—A new public health problem. Lucille K. Georg	53
Aquatic invertebrates as indicators of stream pollution. Arden R. Gaufin and Clarence M. Tarzwell	57
Health departments and the housing problem. Ralph J. Johnson	65
Evaluating health education. Andie L. Knutson	73
Studies in penicillin treatment of syphilis—From 1943 to 1950. R. C. Arnold, R. D. Wright, S. Levitan, and J. C. Cutler	78
Leading causes of death.....	90
The practice of public health—PHR conference report of the American Public Health Association annual meeting.....	96
PHS publications.....	120

