

PUBLIC HEALTH REPORTS

Published since 1878

Contents

	Page
Aging: Implications for public health. Clark Tibbitts	121
The Second International Gerontological Congress—Public health aspects in brief.	127
Therapy with cortisone. C. Paul Silirie	142
Conjunctivitis in elementary schools—Thomas County, Georgia, 1949–50. Dorland J. Davis and Virginia D. Hines	145
Ideas.	150
Research in epidemiology of mental illness. R. H. Felix and Morton Kramer	152
Reports to 50th Conference of the State and Territorial Health Authorities.	161
State of the Nation's health services— Scheele	161
Health programs in the Federal budget— Staats	164
New horizons for child health— Eliot	169
Aging—weakness or strength?— Ewing	171
Inventory of health needs— Mountin	173
Community facilities and services program— Pond	175
Day-care services for children— Arnold	177
Korean malaria— Myers, Andrews, and Coatney	178
Dental health— Knutson	180
Heart disease— Potts and Jones	181
Research for improved nursing practices. Lucile Petry, Margaret Arnstein, and Pearl McIver	183
Tuberculosis case-finding survey program of the Veterans Administration. Leo V. Schneider and Morton Robins	189
Terramycin for nongonococcal urethritis and Reiter's disease. Preliminary report. R. R. Willcox and G. M. Findlay	196
Trends.	200
The practice of public health—PHR conference report of the American Public Health Association annual meeting: Part 2.	202
PHS publications.	221
PHS films.	222

