

PUBLIC HEALTH REPORTS

Published since 1878

Contents

	Page
Meeting world health problems—A symposium	317
The global problem: inequality of opportunity. C.-E. A. Winslow	318
The need for sound program planning. Joseph W. Mountin	319
The need for personnel. Gaylord W. Anderson	323
The need for public understanding and support. A. W. Dent	326
The need for money resources. Frank C. Boudreau	329
International technical assistance in public health	333
The work of the World Health Organization Expert Committees	358
WHO and environmental health. Herbert Bosch	370
Bacterial genetics and drug resistance. Bernard D. Davis	376
Back-pressure arm-lift artificial respiration. Heinz Specht	380
Effect of incomplete information on estimating prevalence of disease. Albert P. Iskrant and Quentin R. Remein	384
Effective use of dental assistants. George E. Waterman	390
Film: Dental assistants—their effective utilization	393
Cancer reporting and register program. Anita K. Bahn	395
New media for the differentiation of enteric bacteria. Hector Colichon	401
Venereal disease morbidity, 1951	404
Ideas	409
PHS publications	410

