

PUBLIC HEALTH REPORTS

Published since 1878

Contents

	Page
Manpower shortages in official health agencies----- William P. Shepard.	709
Statistics in public health programs and administration:
Vistas in public health statistics----- Clarence J. Velz.	725
Application of statistical analysis in a health program----- Ruth R. Puffer.	729
Current methods of collecting statistics of health and health problems----- O. K. Sagen.	737
Statistics in the administration of a State health department---- John D. Porterfield.	741
The administrative value of statistics to a local health officer---- Berwyn F. Mattison.	747
The medical entomologist in public health----- E. Harold Hinman.	755
The tuberculosis problem----- Russell E. Teague.	759
Group chest X-ray examinations and the tuberculosis death rate---- Philip Enterline.	762
Prevalence of tuberculosis in the United States-----	766
Public health and medicine at the crossroads----- Herman E. Hilleboe.	767
Ideas-----	772
Age aspects of environmental and occupational cancers----- W. C. Hueper.	773
Voluntary reporting of venereal diseases in contacts previously re- ported not infected-----	780
Benson H. Sklar, Leonard M. Schuman, and Norman J. Rose.
Dietary standards in the United States----- L. A. Maynard.	784

Continued ►

Contents for August—continued

PHS films-----	787
Family food consumption studies----- C. M. Coons.	788
Drug experience in two programs for medical care----- Herbert Notkin, Bettie Rogerson, Wilfrid Davis, and Matthew Taback.	797
Refuse-can holders----- Ralph J. Van Derwerker and Charles C. Johnson, Jr.	802
Two surveys of disabling illness----- Theodore D. Woolsey.	807
Leptospiral etiology of Fort Bragg fever----- William S. Gochenour, Jr., Joseph E. Smadel, Elizabeth B. Jackson, LaRue B. Evans, and Robert H. Yager.	811
PHS publications-----	814
Public health in the scientific assembly of the American Medical Association. PHR conference report-----	815
Short reports and announcements:
Environmental health course . . . 724. Vocational rehabilita- tion . . . 746. Nursing study . . . 758. Heart disease facility . . . 761. Dr. Knutson appointment . . . 779. Heart radio series . . . 796. Birth weight data . . . 828.

Published concurrently with this issue of Public Health Reports . . .

PUBLIC HEALTH MONOGRAPH No. 4

Estimates of disabling illness prevalence in the United States
by Theodore D. Woolsey

Sixteen pages + iv, illustrated. A summary article and information about availability appear on pages 807 to 810 of this issue of Public Health Reports.

