

PUBLIC HEALTH REPORTS

Published since 1878

Contents

	Page
Rehabilitation in the hospital----- Howard A. Rusk.	281
Occupational factors in lung cancer—A preliminary report----- Lester Breslow.	286
Venereal disease contact investigation—A combined military- civilian program----- Nicholas J. Fiumara, Jack Segal, and Jack Jolly.	289
The public health training program of New York State----- Franklyn B. Amos.	295
Tennessee accident fatalities, 1946–50----- Anna Love Sullivan.	301
Reactivity of VDRL antigen suspensions made at various tempera- tures ----- Paul Fugazzotto.	304
Recent progress in cancer research----- John R. Heller, Jr.	309
Mechanical air drying of hands following preoperative scrubbing--- Paul E. Walker.	317
Histoplasmin and tuberculin sensitivity in Texas infants and children ----- Gilbert B. Forbes and Charles C. Chang.	320
Public health in the western States----- Wilton L. Halverson.	323
Health conservation activities of TVA----- O. M. Derryberry.	327
Insect and rodent control in epidemics and disasters----- John S. Wiley and Porter A. Stephens.	334

Continued ►

Contents for March, continued

	Page
The positive approach to a tuberculosis nursing program----- Doris E. Roberts.	338
Capillary tube technique for serologic screening of syphilis----- Charles R. Freeble, Jr. and Bertina Orsburn.	341
Identifying common flies----- Harold R. Dodge.	345
Reported tuberculosis morbidity, January-June 1952-----	351
Industrial sickness absenteeism rates for specific causes in 1951 and half of 1952-----	353
Influenza prevalence trends in the United States-----	358
Short reports and announcements:
Frontispiece . . . ii. Ideas . . . 288. PHS publica- tions . . . 360. Visiting scientist program . . . 285. Public health training courses . . . 294. PHS staff announce- ment . . . 308. Special notice . . . 333. Heart disease facility . . . 350. Census of mental patients . . . 352. World Health Day . . . 357.

